Session 2026-27

BALVATIKA-I /TULIPS

Dear Parents,

As we welcome the summer vacation, we are pleased to present a set of thoughtfully designed holiday homework for our young learners. The activities have been carefully selected to support the development of key skills such as early literacy, numeracy, and creativity, all while ensuring that the learning experience is enjoyable and engaging. We encourage students to complete these tasks at their own pace, with the support from their families, and to explore the activities with curiosity and enthusiasm. This is a wonderful opportunity for our little ones to practice their skills in a relaxed and enjoyable environment.

The activities are intended to strengthen the parent-child bond by allowing families to explore, create, and learn together. We wish all of our students a joyful and enriching summer vacation!

"Learning never stops when curiosity continues."

INDEPENDENT ME

I can dress myself: Create a simple morning chart with pictures like brushing teeth, putting on shoes, combing hair, etc. in a scrap file.
Ask children to practice each task daily during the holidays and place a sticker each time they do it themselves to appreciate them.

Packing my bag activity: Give them a bag and a checklist (pictures) of what they need to pack like handkerchief, water bottle, snacks, etc.

English is an important subject for pre-schoolers as it helps them learn how to speak, listen, read, and write. At this stage, children begin to recognize letters, learn simple words, and enjoy stories, songs, and rhymes. Through fun activities and play, pre-schoolers build their vocabulary and communication skills, forming the foundation for strong language development. English in preschool is not just about learning—it's about discovering the joy of language in a playful and loving environment.

ACTIVITY PUPPET PARTY

Letter A- M Edition Roll no. 1-8

Letter N- Z Edition Roll no. 9-16

Create 2–3 fun puppets of things that start with the letters.

Send the puppets to school.

Activity Description:

ACTIVITY SENSORY GARDEN PLAY

This holiday, children will create their own small sensory gardens by planting seeds in small pots or garden beds. Through this activity, they will explore the natural world using their senses — touch, smell, and sight while interacting with soil, seeds, water, and plants.

Activity Instructions:

- Plant seeds in a small pot or garden space.
- Water the plants regularly.
- Observe daily for new growth or changes.
- Describe what you see, feel, and smell every day.

Use these new words in your observations:

Seed, sprout, stem, leaf, bud, bloom, wilt, moist, dry, earthy, flower. Paste pictures in the scrap file along with these words.

Try to use these words when talking about your plant's progress!
